SUNDAY BALL QUESTION

Advocates of the Game Triumphed at the League Meeting.

Offending Players to Be Expelled, But Not Fined—"Harry Wright Day" Established by the Magistrates.

New York, Nov. 15.—The annual fall meeting of the National Baseball League which was adjourned from Wednesday, was concluded last night at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

The most important move taken by the League was the abolition of the fine system. For the future offending players will be expelled from the game after one warning in trivial cases and without notice in glaring offenses.

The umpires, Hurst, Emshier and Keefe gave evidence before the meeting as to their treatment by obstructing players on last and previous seasons.

By the unanimous vote of the League the secretary was directed to accept the Harry Wright relief.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Brush of Cincinnati, Hart of Chicago, and Rogers of Philadelphia, was appointed to arrange for a day in the spring to be called "Harry Wright Day," and to be uniformly set apart in all the cities of the League, on which a game is to be played and the proceeds thereof to be devoted to the erection of a monument to the veteran umpire.

On resuming session the delegates proceeded to the election of officers. President and Secretary Nick Young was elected last year for a term of three years. The national board was increased by the election of another member, John T. Brush, while Messrs. Byrne of Brooklyn, President Nick Young and Soden of Boston, were re-elected.

The board of directors was elected as follows: H. K. Vanderhorst, Baltimore; A. H. Soden, Boston; J. R. Wagner, Washington; J. A. Hart, Chicago; Dr. Thomas Hunt Stuckey, Louisville; and W. W. Kerr, Pittsburgh.

The board, as constituted, has three delegates from the East and three from the West.

The playing rules committee was appointed by the president and is made up of President Brush, of Philadelphia; Chris Von der Ahe, of St. Louis, and President Hannon, of Baltimore.

With regard to the Sunday ball question, the advocates of play on the Sabbath won their end and Sunday ball will be played in the West.

The following resolution was passed:
"That the rules committee, when elected, be requested to submit to this body an amendment to rule 59, substantially abolishing the infliction of money fines and empowering umpires to remove from the game any player who, after being once cautioned, continues to be guilty of violating any of the rules, and in case of serious violation, to remove him without such caution."

The League then adjourned until February 24, 1896.

BILLIARD CRANKS HAPPY.

They Saw Ties and Gallagher Do Some Fine Playing.

New York, Nov. 15.—Billiard enthusiasts saw some fine playing last evening at Bulfinch's, in the handicap match between "Napoleon" Ives and Tom Gallagher. It was the fourth night's play. The score follows:

Gallagher, 240; average, 15. Total for four nights, 960; grand average, 18 1/4-17.
Ives, 418; average, 27 1/2-15. Total for four nights, 1,664; grand average, 33 1/4-50.

New Swimming Record.

Manchester, Nov. 15.—J. H. Turner, who has beaten the swimming record for 200 yards, yesterday established a new record for 1,000 yards, swimming the distance in 13 minutes 52 3/4 seconds.

A CAUSE; AN EFFECT; A REMEDY.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

We find that while our business as a complete whole shows a very large and satisfactory increase over any previous year, our CHILD-REN'S AND BOYS' Clothing Department has not shared quite the general prosperity. There is no good reason for this—our stock is superb—our clothing is known in the best manufactured—our prices have been as low as the lowest. Perhaps we have not advertised this department as largely as our others—maybe the numerous and deceiving sales of shoddy children's clothing have been the cause.

THE REMEDY

Be it as it may we have determined to build up the greatest Children's Clothing business in Washington, and until we have done so we shall ask NO PROFIT beyond a 5 per cent increase on cost to cover necessary expenses of running the Department. Hereafter, until further notice, we shall sell Children's and Boys' Clothing at cost, and every Purchaser will be shown and will have a right to demand the original invoice (as paid by us to the manufacturer of any suit or garment).

Be it in mind this is not a sale, not a tearing down, but a building up. We fully realize that we shall sacrifice our legitimate profits, but we are satisfied the results will confirm our judgment. "The Boy is Father to the Man," and therein lies our whole plan as in a nutshell. If we sell the boy's taste and the parent's pocketbook—the grown man will NATURALLY come to us.

THOUSANDS LOST AT POKER

Young New York Plunger Sits in a Stiff Game.

He Spent $40,000 in a Night Playing Against Three Friends—General Sporting Notes.

New York, Nov. 15.—All the Tiedorin is taking today of a great game of poker which took place Monday night and part Tuesday morning, in which one of the best-known horsemen and gamblers in the country lost $40,000. The game was played in the rooms of a man who is popularly supposed to be a square sport, and although there was no suggestion of double dealing, friends of the loser think it odd that such a large sum should go so quickly, and from a rich to a comparatively poor man.

It was about 10 p. m. when play began. There were four men at the table—three card gamblers and one chessman. The limit was fixed at $50, and the big stacks of chips represented a fortune before the evening arrived to find the quartette playing away in a smoke-bedecked room, with no other sound than the click of the chips, a muted oath or the that it was a chessman who had struck the bottom of the kitty box.

The young plunger, who began to lose all from the first, said nothing, but as his after all of big denouement melted away his face showed a look that was not pleasant to behold.

Five hundred dollars went, and then $1,000. Still the bad luck, if that was it, kept on and soon $2,000 had slipped away from the young plunger. Five thousand dollars now, and his forehead became spanning with sweat. He was a young man and played on. When $10,000 had gone he called for a brandy and soda, drank it without a shake, and reached for his rosin.

At 4 a. m. he rose, yawning, and said:
"Boys, you've me broke. If you're the biggest winner, I've lost $16,000 in cash. Let me owe $24,000 to the bank and I'll play some more." There was a consultation and the offer was accepted. Before daylight the rash young fellow was flat broke.

"If I play in a week," he said, but prominent gamblers wondering whether he will or not. His cooler judgment may have a sobering effect on him. It may have been a perfectly fair game, and probably was.
The majority are inclined to think it was.

Laurel, Md., Nov. 15.—A match race between Mr. Lintin's bay horse Bessie Harris and George B. Wiley's gray mare Kitty Duncan will take place next Saturday at the Ashburn race course for $50 a side. Both horses have good records.

Pittsburg, Phil., the great American plunger, turned up at the horse show recently with money to burn and a magnanimous desire to burn it. "He'll" resented an acquaintance. Phil of Pittsburg gazed at him and said: "You're a fellow who's a fellow. You're a fellow who's a fellow. You're a fellow who's a fellow." Then, drawing out a pumpkin-like head of bills, he said: "He'll, you're a fellow who's a fellow. You're a fellow who's a fellow."
Kitty Duncan will take place next Saturday at the Ashburn race course for $50 a side. Both horses have good records.

No Advance for Puddlers.
Youngstown, O., Nov. 15.—President Garland, with two other members of the Amalgamated Association, and Secretary Nait of the Bar Iron Manufacturers' Association, last night rebuffed their conference over the wage question. The result is that there will be no advance for puddlers and finishers for November and December, and the present rate for puddling of $4.50 will continue.

MAHER'S FUTURE PLANS

Will Give All Pugilists a Chance to Win the Championship.

Holcomb's Fight With "Kid" Johnson Was a Draw—Daly's Story About Ex-Champion Corbett.

The new champion of the prize ring, Peter Maher, and his backers, are in Philadelphia, and last night spoke of their future plans. Maher stated that he is ready now and at all times to defend the title which has fallen upon his shoulders through Corbett's retirement. He said, however:
"I do not want empty honors, and am willing to fight for the title, which is of little worth when won by default. This is not what I am after, and I will give all the pugilists a chance to secure it."

I stand ready now to meet all comers, and if Fitzsimmons or Oliver has the best right to meet me first, I will give him the preference. Before articles are signed, however, an agreement must be made that the fight must positively come off; no flukes will be allowed.

If a match is made, the fight must come off in not in public, then in private. In case Fitzsimmons cannot secure sufficient backing, I am willing to meet him for a prize alone. My proposition is this: I agree to meet any man, Fitzsimmons preferred, for any size bet of from $2,500 up to $10,000, in case no purse is put up, in public or in private, and in case a purse is put up, I will meet him singly for that or exactly a side bet as he may want. I am positively not going on the stage with a theatrical company, but I will fight him in the prize ring alone, and the sooner I get on a match against him, the better I shall like it."

Mr. Quinn nodded assent to all Peter said, and said he will back the conqueror of "Honey" for any sum up to $10,000. The latter was particularly emphatic in the statement that a fight must positively come off if a match is made. He said it had cost his party $1,500 to bring about the fight of Maher and Oliver, and he will return in Philadelphia during the remainder of the week as the guest of Jack Fogarty.

Tommy White, of Chicago, the 122-pound fighter, who was matched to meet Fred Hart, of Baltimore, has been released from his contract, and will return to Baltimore later.

Hite Prekham is stopping in Baltimore at Hilton's Hotel, and is ready to make a match with any white boxer in his class.

John Johnson, better known as "Kid" Johnson, of Australia, and Charles Holcomb, of Washington, are in middle weights, were matched in a ten-round boxing contest at the Monumental Amphitheater, Baltimore, last night. Fred A.
Stewart was referee.

Hard hitting and badly aimed blows prevailed throughout. Both were skinned about the seventh round, but kept on gamely.
The referee could not decide at the end of the tenth round, so he ordered an extra round.
This round was a succession of clinches, mixed with considerable foot-fighting. So Mr. Stewart called the act a draw.

A story about the Maher-O'Donnell fight has been sent to the New York Herald, in which James Daly, Corbett's sparring partner, says that Corbett "sawed" O'Donnell against Maher to laugh at his downfall, knowing the result for a certainty.

There is another phase of the Maher-O'Donnell fight, which is being able to bring Maher a misadventure while James J. was training to meet Fitzsimmons. Going at the champion harder than was necessary. One day, therefore, Corbett gave O'Donnell an extra round, and he had never been before. After that Corbett boxed exclusively with him.

Later, at Corbett's suggestion, Daly boxed O'Donnell hard and defeated him. The match with Maher was made simply to get rid of O'Donnell.

Daly adds that O'Donnell is no fighter. He is a fine boxer for points, but is being able to land regulars of counters, but his habit of drawing his hand back before hitting handled him to defeat.

O'Donnell has recovered from the late whipping Maher gave him.

DUNRAVEN WAS DISCUSSED.

New York Yacht Club Deliberates on What to Do.

New York, Nov. 15.—An informal conference of yachtmen was held at the New York Yacht Club house, on Madison avenue, yesterday afternoon for the purpose of discussing the charge of fraud made by Lord Dunraven against the syndicate controlling the Defender, and also to consider the most advisable course to pursue in the matter.

The conference began shortly after 4 o'clock and lasted until 5 p. m. The session was secret, but it was learned that Dunraven's charges were gone over, and various suggestions made as to the course of the club in the matter.

Mr. Wells made a statement in reply to Dunraven's accusation, and said that refuting the charge that the Defender's load-line had been tampered with. There was no question as to the truth of the truth of Lord Dunraven's statement, every member present at the conference being thoroughly convinced that it is a base calumny.

BICYCLE JOTTINGS.

"The league is in a position today to confront the matter in what shape it may be," said Chairman Gordon yesterday in Philadelphia. "I have not the re-motest idea what changes, if any, will be made at the national assembly in February.
But I think that the day is not far when we could manage things even though there were no classifications at all."

Cabanne is going to quit racing altogether and be married in the spring. The circus chasers will no doubt be sorry when they learn the news, as "Cabby" was a universal favorite.

The bulletin contains the names of several new "races" and a few transfers to class B. Those who have lost their pure amateur standing are Messrs. A.
Waller, E. C. Barnes, E. C. Barnes, E. C.
Waller, Willard F. Hanks, Fred A. Poell.
The new class B riders are Messrs. H. E.
Charles, Charles D. Hanks, George A.
Eisenhart has been suspended for one year for refusing under an assumed name, while Casey Castleman is ruled off pending investigation.

In spite of rain and mud Messrs. F. L.
Fagan and H. Palmer knocked forty-nine minutes off the record between New York and Philadelphia yesterday. The riders left New York at 9:14, and reached Philadelphia at 3:12, taking 7 hours 58 minutes to cover the distance, including all stops.
The men were greatly inconvenienced by the rain, and were delayed over an hour by two punctures. Fagan simply plugged his and continued on his ride.

Louisville, Nov. 15.—Wednesday night a Fountain Ferry truck Frank E. P.
Scarle, the Chicago-New York rider, lowered the American record for one hundred miles from 4 hours 27 minutes to 4 hours 22 1/2 minutes. He had started for the twenty-four-hour record, but stopped at the end of the century.

The most important part of this week's official bulletin is the number of records which have been accepted by the racing board. The new figures for the various distances are as follows:

Fifty miles, class A, unpaired, flying start against time, 2 hours 22 minutes 45 seconds, by William Becker, of Chicago, Ill., at Fremont, Ill., Oct. 27, 1895.

One mile, class B, unpaired, flying start against time, 2 minutes 25 seconds, by W.
E. Hamilton, Denver, Col., October 12, 1895.

One mile, class A, paced, standing start, competition, 2 minutes 43 seconds, by C. C. Collins, Denver, Col.

One-half mile, class B, unpaired, standing start, competition, 28 1/2 seconds, by C. M.
Murphy, Denver, Col.

One mile, class B, paced, standing start, competition, 1 minute 53 1/2 seconds, by C. M. Murphy and E. C. Baird, Denver, Col.

One mile, class A, unpaired, flying start against time, 2 minutes 15 seconds, by A. H.
Stowe, E. W. Swann, H. Dickson and H. E. Conhauer.

Two-thirds of a mile, class B, paced, flying start against time, 1 minute 3 1/2 seconds, by C. R. Coulter, Louisville, Ky.

One mile, tandem, professional, paced, flying start against time, 1 minute 50 1/2 seconds, by Austin Brooks, and A. E. Weing, Louisville, Ky.

Pittsburg Man's Suicide.
Baltimore, Nov. 15.—T. B. Roberts, of Albany, Pa., a traveling salesman for Nax-Phospho Company, of Pittsburg, was found dead on the floor of his room in the Tremont House last night. He had committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart. Dependence caused by drink was the apparent cause.

Men's great drug and medicine sale continues today.

DUNRAVEN'S NEW CHARGE

Says Vigilant's Ballast Was Jockeied in Last Race.

Englishmen Will Now Make This an Important Element in the Yacht Race Controversy.

New York, Nov. 15.—A special cable dispatch from London says:

There is another phase of the American's cup controversy which will not contribute to any possible settlement of Lord Dunraven's scandalous charges. It has been discovered that the Englishmen, and his early insistence regarding the marking of the Defender's water line.

These reasons are, it is stated, that the crew of the Vigilant were suspected of tampering with her ballast during her racing season here last year in the same manner as the crew of the Defender are now accused of doing.

"I heard talk of this sort a year ago," the message continues, "but dismissed it as unworthy of consideration. It was revised this week, however, and as the controversy proceeds it will probably become an important element in the case from the English standpoint."

"One of Lord Dunraven's friends insisted that the Vigilant was jockeyed in last year's English races. No lines were made about it, he said, because it was desired to avoid just what Dunraven had just preceded."

"Lord Dunraven, it is stated, by his friends, expressed no regret for his recent action; on the other hand, it is felt that he what he expected and desired. His main object was to secure an investigation, and I understand that he is quite willing to contribute evidence in such an inquiry."

When George J. Gould was shown a copy of the special cablegram from London in reference to the charges made against the Vigilant, he said: "The charges are a base calumny."

"There is absolutely no truth in the statement, and I don't care to make any reply to it."
